INTERGENERATIONAL SHARED ACCOMMODATION

Renting a room in an elderly person's home can allow you to pay lower rent than in more traditional rented accommodation. There are a number of different options: certain rooms are free in exchange for helping out on a daily basis, while others are rented at a lower rate to share the accommodation.

STUDENT RESIDENCIES

Student residences typically have fully-equipped apartments or rooms and offer services such as laundry, bicycle storage, and collective spaces.

CROUS RESIDENCIES

You can apply for accommodation in a Crous residence when you put together your Student Social File (Dossier Social Etudiant or DSE). This application is reserved exclusively for students who meet the regulatory conditions for applying for a grant based on social criteria.

If some housing is still available at the end of the main allocation phase, a complementary phase will be opened.

All students (including international students) can apply for accommodation on the following website : <https://trouverunlogement.lescrous.fr/>

A map of Crous residences in Lyon is available at the following address :

Association d'aide au logement des jeunes (AILOJ) Youth Housing Association

Reception and housing information service without appointment.

- AILOJ : <http://www.ailoj.fr/>

TENANT ASSISTANCE

There are a number of administrative, legal and financial aids that can help you when you are a tenant.

FINANCIAL

- Aide personnalisée au logement (APL) : The APL is financial aid paid by the CAF (Caisse d'Allocations Familiales). All students, including those from abroad, can apply online at :
<https://www.bedandcrous.com/>
Please note that this assistance is not retroactive, so it's important to apply as soon as possible once you've found your accommodation !
- Fonds de solidarité pour le logement (FSL) : The FSL provides financial assistance to people experiencing serious difficulties in paying accommodation-related expenses (bills, rent, etc.).
Assistance may be granted in specific cases, subject to a means test. We invite you to get in touch with a social worker to help you put together an application.
To find out more :
<https://www.service-public.fr/particuliers/vosdroits/F1334>

ADMINISTRATIVE AND LEGAL

- DossierFacile : Government scheme to help you put together a high-quality digital rental file to help you find a home. Free assistance in putting together a secure, compliant digital rental file.
